E D I T O R I A L

Grateful thanks go to Mr. A. Knight who has printed in booklet form for the Society, the Pentrich and Dalbury Monumental Inscriptions which were recorded by some of our members. The booklets are now available in the Society Library.

Many thanks also to Mrs. H. Eaton who has placed into our care, the lists of out parish baptisms and marriages she has taken from the registers of BRAMPTON near CHESTERFIELD. These range from 1658 to 1826.

A keen member of our Society who has been 'bitten' by the M. I. Bug has recorded the monumental inscriptions at St. Lawrence's church HEANOR. The inscriptions of gravestones in the churchyard appear in this issue. Inscriptions of memorials inside the church and the names from the War Memorial of those who gave their lives during the 1914 - 1918 war will be included in the next issue of "Branch News".

I N C R E A S E I N S U B S C R I P T I O N S

During the two years that the society has been in existence, it has been noticeable that costs have increases. Unfortunately, we have not escaped these increases.

We have been very fortunate in the past in that "Branch News" has been produced almost for nothing. However, this cannot continue and we must budget ahead for expected costs.

In addition, as our membership increases, we are becoming less a local society and more a society with members all over the country and all round the world (particularly the United States and Canada). This means that we are becoming more and more involved in correspondence with distant members, with the increase in postal costs that this involves

To enable us to cover the increased costs and to enable us to stay in balance by the end of the year - our most difficult period, before annual subscriptions are paid - the committee felt that there was no alternative but to increase the annual subscription rate and this was agreed by the members present at the Annual General Meeting held on Friday, 28th April, 1978.

The new rates are:-	Ordinary membership	£2.00
	Joint membership	£3.00
	Reduced rate (students and senior citizens)	£1.50
	Overseas membership (no reduction for students or senior citizens)	£3.00

SUMMER ACTIVITIES

JULY - Outing to Oakes Park near Sheffield, the Bagshaw family home. (date to be arranged)

AUGUST - Proposed outing to Melbourne if a sufficient number of people are interested. (date to be arranged)

SEPTEMBER 29th -- We welcome the return visit of Mr. Packe of the Mormon Church.

RECORDING OF MONUMENTAL INSCRIPTIONS: These are well under way at Ironville and South Wingfield, a start has also been made at Codnor. Any help will be greatly appreciated.

MEETINGS REPORT

MARCH - Members and visitors were entertained by Mr. R. Storer of Selston, Notts. who presented an N.C.B. Film on the development of coal-mining through nine centuries, from the early days of picking coal from the beaches to present day highly mechanised methods of mining. Very useful background material for those of us with miners in our family tree!

APRIL - Mr. C. Daniel who has established a small museum in his native village of Eyam, Derbyshire, spoke to us on the Bubonic Plague which raged in this village in the 1660's. Slides of the various burial grounds of the plague victims were shown and views of the yearly commemoration ceremonies which take place.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING - This year the A.G.M. followed Mr. Daniel's talk on Eyam Plague. Unfortunately it was not too well attended. In the chair was Mrs. Winifred Waterall who had taken this position during the year. She, along with other committee members were re-elected but one vacancy remains to be filled. Mrs. Waterall had enjoyed her year of office and thanked the committee for their support. The treasurer spoke of the increase in membership during the year, and also the need to increase the annual subscription rates. The secretary spoke of our plans for the coming year and reported on the 'adopt a distant member' scheme which was helping to lighten her load with correspondence.

HELP OFFERED - Mrs. Barbara Kent of 8 Pedmore Court Rd. STOURBRIDGE, West Midlands. DY8 2PH is helping to compile the Derbyshire Marriage Index and offers information concerning the WAGSTAFF (E) family, especially in the GLOSSOP area, to anyone researching that name.

SECRETARY'S NOTES

I have discovered there is more than one way of "getting hooked" I seem to have become hooked on Conferences! The accepted image of Conferences is of either lectures, argumentative and even quarrelsome discussions with participants either falling asleep or anxiously watching the time and waiting to go home.

Not so genealogical conferences. It is here that the essential friendliness of family historians becomes apparent. Lectures are fascinating, informative, lively and often hilariously funny. (almost every lecture goes "overtime" and at two conferences we had to be hustled off with the words "We have only booked the room till 1 o'clock!")

Having once experienced this at the International Congress in London I just had to go to Manchester where the experience was repeated and the pleasure increased by the friendly hospitality of a member and her children.

As for Hampshire - that was a great disappointment, but only because at the last minute I was not able to go and as my maternal ancestors originated from there you can maybe begin to guess my disappointment.

However, Bristol made up for this as there was the added bonus of having children there, and what could be more appropriate for a Family History Conference. A wonderful programme was organised for them including a number of visits and a brass-rubbing session. They were so happy to show us their work when we met for refreshments. It would be invidious to sort out superlatives for my charming host and hostess so suffice it to say that it was altogether the most delightful conference I have so far attended.

Finally, can't I persuade some of you - "ordinary" members - to join me at Cambridge in September, or some later conference? These happy get-togethers are not just for secretaries, you know

HAVE YOU LOST YOUR ANCESTORS?

(Extract from Victorian History of Derbyshire)

In 1155 Robert de Dun transferred all his rights as patron of Osmaston (by Derby) church to the Abbott of Darley, the Abbot paying one mark yearly to the Mother Church of St. Peter.

"A mark if its subjection to St. Peter's was the very curious condition attached to its privilege of sepulture, single persons only, being allowed to be buried in its churchyard, the bodies of householders and married persons being carried for interment to the Mother Church" This custom prevailed until the problem of the Black Death put an end to the practice.

SNIPPET

SCENE: A FRENCH CHURCHYARD

1st man - (weeping copiously while leaning on a headstone) "Oh why did you leave this world? (sob sob) You left this world too soon".

2nd man - (with sympathy and surprise, having read the inscription recording the death of a man 20 yrs. earlier) "Oh, are you still mourning his death? Was it your father or your brother?"

1st man - (still sobbing) "No, he was my wife's first husband."

ARE YOU HELPING?

The National Pedigree Index depends on all genealogists, whether amateur or professional, for its success. Have you written for a free supply of slips on which relevant information about various lines of your family can be recorded? Don't forget an S.A.E. when applying to:

National Pedigree Index
c/o Society of Genealogists
37 Harrington Gardens
London SW7 47X

Should you wish, for a small fee, you can be put in touch with other people researching the same name in the same area. If the N.P.I. has no record of anyone of the right name in the right place, then your fee will be returned.

CHURCHYARD WHIT.

Here lies the mother of children seven,
Four on earth and three in heaven.
The three in heaven preferring rather,
To go with mother than stay with father.

(from Rev. C. Bellerby Surrey.)

In Southwell Churchyard

To Adams The Carrier

John Adams lies here of the parish of Southwell,
A carrier who carried his can to his mouth well.
He carried it much and he carried it fast,
He could carry no more - so was carried at last,
For the liquer being too much for one.
He could carry off - so he's now carrion.

In Edwalton Churchyard

Rebecca Freeland, 1741

She drank good ale, good punch, good wine, and lived to the age of 99.

In St. Wilfred's Churchyard Muskham Notts.

Here lieth the corpse of John Smith meate for worms to feed therewith 1583

In Bunny Churchyard Notts.

(On Sir Thomas Parkin, a famous wrestler)

At length he falls - the long contest is o'er and time has thrown whom none e'er threw before.
Yet boast not time, thy victory, for he
At last shall rise again and conquer thee.

In Duffield Church

Acrostic Inscription on a monument to Anthonie Bradshaw of Makeney and his 2 wives and 20 children.

He erected the monument in 1600 and did not die until 1614, 3 more children having been born in the interim.

After a recital of his achievement comes the acrostic:

As God dyd give this man
No small charge as you see
To train them he began
Here each in there degree
Oft wishing then such grace
No future course to take
Injurious to there race
Els end of lief to make

Bless them oh Lord with peace
Resist there adverse fates,
Always them well increase
Defendyng them from bates
Such lyvelihode to them gyve
Here whylest on earth they bee
As they may love and lyve
We pray O God, quoth He.

MONUMENTAL INSCRIPTIONS
ST. LAWRENCE'S CHURCHYARD HEANOR

Almost all these gravestones have been removed from their original position owing to the widening of the road. This has been done twice, the last time being in 1912.

A new graveyard was consecrated in January 1858. It is intended that the inscriptions there will be recorded at a later date.

THE "NEW LOOK" IN THE LOCAL STUDIES DEPARTMENT

Those who have recently visited the Local Studies Department in Derby Central Library will know of the great improvement there. Entrance to the dept. is no longer hidden from view behind the desk in the Reference Library. No longer do we have to slip behind the desk, creep along the narrow corridor, mount the steps and apprehensively knock on the door.

The room is now much larger, the partition which separated the Local Studies Dept. from the Children's Library has been removed, the latter being transferred elsewhere in the building. There is now more space in which to work or to browse. Entrance is now gained through large double doors, situated straight ahead when you turn to your left as you enter the building by the main entrance on the Wardwick, the last door on your right if you enter from the Strand.
